Baylander Quartets Stimulate Economy!

Something Old Something New, Patchwork, Compass Points and Revised Edition delivered seventy-eight Singing Valentines from Shawano to Seymour to Luxemburg and points in between. Net income after mileage, food and roses should exceed $2000. Lessons learned this year include "Don't take a shower Valentines Day afternoon" and "Don't skip class at Rasmussen College because they will come and get you".

Great Job and Thank You to All!! Don't forget Bob Quigley

Guess what! You need to sell ad space in your show program too. The Harmony Jubilee and the HJ Program are two of the largest income producers we have. Virtually our entire budget is based on the income from our April show! Look for these forms and have some FUN with your ad sales and collect with each order, as possible.
